Chief Rescue Officer
Avon & Somerset Search and Rescue

Dear Alan Re Vulnerable Missing person Search 26th/27th May 2010
Incident Log 372 of 26th May 2010

I am writing to you with regards to the above incident where a vulnerable female, Txxxxx Txxxxxxx went missing in South Bristol.

As you are aware the outcome of this incident was a happy one as Txxxxx was subsequently found by one of your team members.

The feedback which I have received from District officers, in particular Inspector Ben Moseley, from CID, and from our Operations dept, was that your team acted in a very professional manner and performed outstanding work which resulted in Txxxxx being found.

I believe that your team's tenacity in subsequently locating Txxxxx saved her life.

I would, as acting Chief Inspector of South Bristol and on behalf of Supt Steve Jeffries, who is in charge of South Bristol, and also on behalf of other departments of Avon and Somerset Constabulary involved in the search, like to offer my most sincere thanks for the efforts and commitment of your team members involved in the incident and in particular Stephen Rumney and Martin Papworth who actually found Txxxxx.

Your efforts are very much appreciated by Avon & Somerset Constabulary and by Txxxxx's family.

Yours Sincerely

Acting Chief Inspector Caroline Bullen
